Wilkinsburg on the Web—Featuring Local Business

In support of local business, the Wilkinsburg Community Development Corporation is pleased to announce two new marketing initiatives. The WCDC has sponsored The Insider Guide to Wilkinsburg on Pop City, a weekly e-magazine and website that connects you - and over 32,000 subscribers - to neighborhoods that are making Pittsburgh a lively, diverse and livable city. The site includes a directory of where to shop, dine and visit in Wilkinsburg: <http://www.popcitymedia.com/features/wilkinsburg080311.aspx>

Special thanks to our summer intern—Jennifer Alfieri

Jennifer Alfieri
WCDC Intern

The WCDC Board of Directors and Staff would like to acknowledge the terrific work done this summer by Jennifer Alfieri. Jennifer grew up in the Pittsburgh area and is currently working towards her Master's in Public Administration, focusing on public and non-profit management at the University of Pittsburgh's Graduate School of Public and International Affairs (GSPIA). She hopes to pursue a career in community development once graduated. She loves learning about the community and collaborating with community leaders and residents in a joint effort to develop the area. After interning at the WCDC, Jennifer knows she wants to live in and be part of the community she works to develop. Thank you Jennifer for your hard work and cheerful personality. We know your future plans will be a great success!
